About the Show

Jerks Productions is continuing their collaboration with One Liberty Philadelphia Observation Deck (Formally One Liberty Observation Deck) located at 1650 Market Street. Each show will focus on what makes Philadelphia unique through the eyes of local artists and the show will be on display for two month intervals. Our goal is to provide seasoned and emerging artists a unique environment to showcase and sell their work.

The current call for our Philly Vibes exhibition requires that all work is family friendly - no nudity, drug use or offensive languages and images. All work must be approved by the observation deck staff prior to acceptance. This show is open to all mediums and sizes, including 3D work.

Participation Fee

Payment is required after art is accepted by deadline stated. Late payment may result in termination from the show.

- $35 per piece

Artists are entitled to 100% commission of all sales generated from this exhibition.

Artist Responsibility

All work must be ready to hang upon delivery and since all work will be displayed on easels, wire backing is not required for this show. Failure to do so will result in non-refundable exclusion from the show. You are expected to collect any rejected work. Inclusion of business cards or promotional items are recommended, but not required.

Artists are responsible for scheduling a time to drop off their work with Jerks Productions as well as picking up their work in a timely manner. Artists are not permitted to hang or remove their work before, during, or after the show without permission from Jerks Productions.

Patrons must purchase a ticket to One Philadelphia Observation Deck in order to view the show. Jerks Productions will communicate with accepted artists about a scheduled reception date.
