About the Show

Jerks Productions has collaborated with 2424 Studios on bringing a consistent rotation of art to their location on 2424 East York Street, Philadelphia, Pa. Each show is curated by a specific theme and hangs at four month intervals. Our goal is to continue to showcase local artists in a casual yet professional environment.

The current call for our 2424 Studios exhibition will focus on the human figure and portraits. Limited nudity will be allowed and all work must be approved by the 2424 Studios property manager prior to acceptance. This show is open to all mediums and sizes, including 3D work.

Participation Fee

Payment is required after art is accepted by deadline stated. Late payment may result in termination from the show.

- $40 per piece
- $150 for four pieces
- $25 per additional piece after four

Artists are entitled to 100% commission of all sales generated from this exhibition.

Artist Responsibility

All work must be ready to hang upon delivery with wire backing. Failure to do so will result in non-refundable exclusion from the show. You are expected to collect any rejected work. Inclusion of business cards or promotional items are recommended, but not required.

Artists are responsible for scheduling a time to drop off their work with Jerks Productions as well as picking up their work in a timely manner. Artists are not permitted to hang or remove their work before, during, or after the show without permission from Jerks Productions.

A member of 2424 Studios building is required to be present for all visitors. Patrons may email Jerks Productions to schedule a private tour. Jerks Productions is responsible for notifying participating artists and scheduling the show reception.
